

PARISH OF FINGLAS

Churches of St. Canice and St. Margaret

Vol. 24 Sunday AUGUST 6th 2017 No. 34

FR. PÁDRAIG O CÓCHLAIN, P.P.

As you are aware by now, Fr. Padraig is leaving us after nine years as Parish Priest of Finglas, to work in the Parish of Arklow. We will miss his easy way with people, his hearty welcome, his peace, his good humour, his sincerity, how he includes everybody and his gratitude for even the simplest service. We value these things about him and thank him for them. Our Parish has been lucky to have Fr. Pádraig for 9 years as Parish Priest of St. Canice's. Parish. It is only natural that people may want to show their appreciation for all his work in the parish. Envelopes have been left at the back of the Church and at the doors. These envelopes can be placed in any of the secure boxes on the right hand side of the main altar or handed into the Parish Office. A presentation will be made at the 7pm vigil Mass on Saturday August 26th and afterwards a reception will be held in St. Canice's Girls School Hall to which you are all invited.

The Transfiguration of Jesus

The Transfiguration was the glorification of the human body of Jesus. On this occasion His body underwent a change in form, a metamorphosis, so that it shone as brightly as the sun. At the time of the Transfiguration, Jesus' earthly ministry was coming to a close. He had acknowledged that He was the Messiah and predicted His death and resurrection. Now He was to reveal, to a select few, His divine glory. The Transfiguration provides further evidence that Jesus was the divine Son of God. It is not coincidental that this happened soon after Jesus had acknowledged Himself to be the Christ, the one who left heaven's glory to come to earth. Now three of His disciples were to get a glimpse of that glory. The appearance of Moses and Elijah with Jesus is highly significant. The name Moses was equated with the Old Testament law that God had given to the people. Jesus came and fulfilled the commandments of the law and did the things the law could not do, that is, to provide an answer for the problem of sin. The law pointed out the problem; Jesus gave the solution.

AN EQUAL RIGHT TO LIFE

Some politicians, along with international abortion campaigners, want to repeal the 8th Amendment so they can legalise unlimited abortion. What is the 8th Amendment? The 8th Amendment of the Irish Constitution was approved by a huge majority of the Irish people in 1983. It recognises that there are two human lives involved in a pregnancy, and protects and safeguards the life of BOTH mother and baby. Top legal experts have said that repealing the 8th Amendment would result in abortion on demand, and it would mean that the right to life of preborn children would not be protected. That's not what the majority of Irish people want. Our constitution says that both mother and baby have a right to life, and should be protected. Abortion has no place in a modern society.

Just a thought!

God has blessed me. I have seen better days, but I have also seen worse. I do not have all my wants, but I do have all my needs. I woke up with aches and a few worries, but I woke up! My life may not be perfect, but I thank God, it is good

In the Bits and Pieces

'God is watching us from a distance,' so said a popular song a few years ago. The poet, Patrick Kavanagh has a truer understanding. He wrote: 'God is in the bits and pieces of everyday—a kiss here and a laugh again, and sometimes tears'. We meet God in Mass and the Sacraments but we most often meet him in the smaller, homelier circumstances of daily life. At home, in the affection of a wife, husband, child, parent: God loves us. He laughs with us in the joy of a wedding, in the winning of a match, in the fun of jokes and yarns, of games and songs. In a word of encouragement, guidance or correction from somebody we admire. He whispers—or shouts—to us. When sickness or set-backs bring us down to earth we find Him there before us. He is in the midst of the parting of parent and child on the first day at school, of college, of work, and of emigration. At a time of bereavement the prayer and patience of friends reveal Him.

Our God is alive. He is near and within— In the bits and pieces of everyday...a kiss....a laugh.... and sometimes a tear'.
